Pastor's Corner

Dear church family,
I believe that many of you know that Lisa and I have a son who lives in Sioux Falls who has given us 3 grandchildren (one of which was born just a few weeks ago!) Having said that, some of you may also know that we have been wanting for some time to get closer to them so we could be a part of their lives in a more meaningful way. As a part of that endeavor we had actually asked the Dakotas cabinet starting four years ago, if we could be appointed somewhere closer to Sioux Falls. As it turns out, we were instead appointed to Rapid Valley. While it is true that we are one hour closer than we were during our time in Hot Springs, we are still too far away to visit very regularly. So this Spring we again asked if we could possibly be moved closer, but there are no United Methodist appointments available at this time. In fact, I was told that there may not be anything available next year either, so our D.S. gave us permission to seek a pastoral position outside of the denomination.

Having said all this, I need to inform you all that I have accepted a position as pastor of the United Church of Christ in Brookings. After consultation with Bob Reudebusch we decided that June 30th would be my last day here at Rapid Valley. He is currently working on a plan for the appointment of a new pastor, and he will be in close communication with your Roundtable leadership group.

I want to thank all of you who have remained faithful to this congregation and have shown love and care to Lisa and I over these last two years. It's a somewhat difficult thing to be an itinerant pastor who moves and uproots family and seeks to develop new relationships every few years. And the truth of the matter is that there are some folks who make those transitions even harder for a pastor, and then there are life giving folks who make the call to pastoral leadership rewarding and affirming.

So again, I thank you who have continued to worship together, either in person or online, and I trust that together you will move into the future together, united in love and purpose. I pray that you will reject any judgementalism or heard heartedness that seeks to gain a foothold among you, and that you remain faithful to the call to reach outside of yourselves and outside of the wall of the church to continue building the kingdom of God through making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Blessings,
Pastor Mark
